EDITORIAL

The Student Association Handbook and Directory for 1936–1937 makes its appearance in a new and pleasing design. Its pages are filled with necessary and useful information of value to the Faculty and student body alike.

The Editor has redesigned the cover and title page, and introduced a modern type face for the copy, with added pen and ink renderings throughout the handbook, with the idea of linking illustration and copy as an effective whole, and to some extent expressing the modern tendency of the day.

The decorative illustrations were made possible through the kindly cooperation of Dorcas O'Neil, William Shevis, Gordon Mayo, and Clifford Kinney. Appreciation is also expressed for assistance given by Dominick Severino, Marion Davison, and Thelma Mitchell, whose willing help is largely responsible for the compilation and correctness of copy.

Alma Mater

School of Art, thy sons and daughters
  Gathering now, from far and near,
Render thus with song of gladness
  Tribute to thy name most dear.
Hopeful! joyous! we assemble
  Seeking Truth as our reward.
Thou dost mark each hidden talent,
  Nurture well each gift of God.

Here 'mid sweet association
  We have sought to understand
Beauty's place in God's creation,
  Nature's choicest gift to man.
Errant brush and faltering pencil
  Trained, will lead to richer life;
Character, like clay, is moulded
  Only thus through wholesome strife.

Daughter, loved of State and Nation,
  May our faith in thee abide.
May thy noble inspiration
  Be for evermore our guide.
Till we bear thy precious story
  O'er our land from East to West
Consecrating to thy glory
  Heart and hand in Service blest.

M. S. A. Creed

I believe in Art as a great uplifting force to humanity and as a medium through which the finest human emotions are expressed. As a student of Art, I have faith in Art and in its universal appeal to mankind. I will try, in my study of Art, to spread a love for truth and beauty so that others may know and experience for themselves this creative force in their lives.

The artist, in order to achieve, must master not only his technique, but must also express order, harmony, and loyalty. These qualities I realize I must develop in my school years if I would be equipped for my life work.

This is my school. So that it may offer to all equal opportunity and freedom for creative work

I will keep its rules.

I will uphold its standards and support its policies.

I will promote and protect its ideals.

I will be loyal to my own talent and to the talents of my fellow students.

THE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The present Student Association was organized in 1922 on a plan presented to the school by the principal, Mr. Royal B. Farnum. While it is not precisely a student government, the Association has many of the functions of such an organization and is an integral factor in student life. It is primarily an agency for the promotion and supervision of social life and extra-curricular activities, and it has sole control of the financial affairs involved in student enterprises.

The political structure of the Association consists of two inter-related units; the Council of the whole, and the Advisory Board. The Council of the whole is the entire membership of the Association, which includes every student in the school. The legislative power is vested in this Council, and it must pass on all amendments to the Association's constitution and may make decisions on important questions affecting the policy of the Association. The executive power is possessed by the Advisory Board. This Board includes the Association officers, the class presidents, the heads of the various student organizations, and a faculty committee. It has the general direction of all student activities.

One of the most important duties of the Association is the administration of finances for the various school organizations. The funds received annually from the collection of membership fees is budgeted among the different classes and clubs. Each organization is credited with a specified sum and its expenses are paid from this amount by the Association treasurer as requested by the organization's treasurer. This method centralizes responsibility and simplifies business relations between school organizations and outside concerns.

Privileges of S. A. Membership

In return for your membership fee you are entitled to the following:

1. Copy of the Year Book.
2. Admission to the Smock Day dance.
3. Admission to the Christmas spread and dance.
4. Permission to enter Exhibition subject to rules.
5. Admission to the annual S. A. picnic.
6. Reduced rates at performances of the Mascart Theatre.
7. Reduced ticket prices at your own class dance.

A well-stocked supply store is maintained at the school where students and faculty may purchase art materials at reasonable prices. All business is conducted with the approval of the Board of Directors. Most of the profits are used as student aid loans and to provide cultural opportunities for the student body.

THE ORCHESTRA

The orchestral outlook for M.S.A. is brighter than it has been in many a year. For not only have we a fine leader, Miss Pierce, but there also seems to be enough material for a full orchestra with complete instrumentation, (even to a bassoon). The group nobly gives up lunch hour on Wednesday for rehearsals and this, if nothing else, should merit your support.

President	Reginald Bankart
Secretary-Treasurer	Dorcas O'Neil
Faculty Advisor	Mr. Cain

With its new director, Miss Pierce, spreading a fresh enthusiasm for voice lifting, the Glee Club is already showing promise for a most entertaining year. The possibility of presenting an operetta looms large on our musical horizon, together with various quartets and assembly entertainments.

For everyone who enjoys singing for relaxation and pleasure, we have a welcome niche.

Reginald Bankart

MAGIC CLUB

Every Thursday afternoon an ambitious group of magical aspirants meets with Mr. Hoadley in their between-floors sanctum. There they not only learn but also practise the intriguing science of prestidigitation.

SKETCH CLUB

The Sketch Club is an ardent group of students who meet regularly with Mr. Philbrick, amid much matting and thumb-tacking, for informal criticism and discussion of work done outside of regular studio assignments. Its popularity is proved easily by its overflow attendance and the school's open enthusiasm for both the Sketch Club bulletin displays and the annual exhibition in the Spring. A most vital factor to an art school, — it does not seem strange that it has become so successful in its still short history.

Stuart Hodge

BASKET-BALL

Our third year as an organized team wants to be as successful as in the past. Let's have a lot of recruits turn out and everyone may see the games. Moral support is a great help to the players.

This is your school and your basketball team, so help to make them better.

Watch the Bulletin Boards for announcements.

Vincent Ostrand, Captain

CRAFTS GUILD

The youngest association of the student groups makes its bow. Meetings are planned for the second Monday of each month to be held in B-10 at 3:05. At least two exhibitions will be held during the year.

FENCING CLUB

The Fencing Club is now enjoying its second year of activity. Its membership, undoubtedly, has increased more than any other club in the school. This is quite evident by the number of spectators and participants at the daily noon-time massacres in the shadows of the M.S.A. Colosseum.

The group is self-taught with the most progressive "tooth-pick handlers" instructing the victims.

The club welcomes all visitors and all those who are interested in its membership to attend one of the daily bloodless slaughters.
